ARCADE COMEDY THEATER—Downtown Pittsburgh’s destination for all things comedy. Opened in February 2013, the Arcade began as a storefront converted into an intimate 75-seat theater and home to some of the funniest, most innovative and most affordable comedy in the city. The Arcade’s new home occupies one of the last vacant buildings in the Cultural District’s 900 block. It’s a major upgrade for the comedy community, featuring two stages, a lounge, dedicated classroom space and plenty of room to grow. Even as the Arcade expands into a brand-new building, its goal is the same: to present fun, accessible and affordable live comedy to the Pittsburgh community... every weekend.

943 Liberty Avenue / Tickets start at $7

SEE HOW WE RANK

Grove City College is a nationally ranked liberal arts and sciences college where students are equipped to pursue their unique callings through an academically excellent and Christ-centered learning and living experience. Our students learn about their place in the world, and how to use their talents to succeed not only in life, but to advance the common good.

An exceptional faculty, a beautiful campus, and a core curriculum that uses the wisdom of the ages inspires each generation to discover and create a better future.

Tuition and costs run about half the national average before scholarships and financial aid. Our graduates see a 96 percent placement rate and enjoy greater career satisfaction and higher than average starting salaries.
